

Dear Andy,

Working as your intern has been an amazing experience. You have been a great boss/mentor to me, and I appreciate everything I was able to learn while working for you. I feel fortunate to have worked under someone with the engineering experience that you have, and I am excited to continue building on the skills that I have gained through your guidance.

Thank You!

Preston Ferris